Five Barriers to High Performing

Dr. S. Atkins has identified 5 major problems that can detour, slow down or even stop progress on virtually any project at any time. With the ALIVE Performance Enhancement Programs, teams and individuals learn how to increase their productivity, get through and get agreement, solve stressful problems permanently, and take responsibility for productive action when faced with errors, problems and unmet expectations.

Benefits to Organizations

Multi-level Impact

Deliver essential concepts and skills that increase the productivity of managers and employees at all organizational levels.

High Performance

Challenge both the most productive and the least productive people to do better

Reduced Costs

Eliminate the cost of lost time from inefficient work styles, recurring problems, miscommunication, avoiding responsibility, and uncoordinated teams.

Quick Results

Accelerate cooperation, trust, and open communication for improved planning, decision making, and problem-solving.

Benefits to Individual Learners

Productivity Skills

Participants learn how to eliminate unproductive work habits and develop greater versatility for dealing with a wider range of tasks and responsibilities.

Problem Solving Skills

Participants learn how to generate a variety of alternative solutions to persistent, unresolved problems.

Influence Skills

Participants learn how to get through, get agreement and get actions with key people.

Leadership Skills

Participants learn how to keep themselves and others focused on achieving results when dealing with errors, problems, and unmet expectations.
